Welcome to All Saints!

We are a spiritually centered, open community and we're glad to have you with us. Wherever you are in your life's journey, we invite you to consider All Saints as your spiritual home.

There are many ways to experience God, to serve Christ and to grow spiritually. We encourage you to join us in prayer, service to others, mutual support, and for fellowship.

There is a lot going on in our community and the yellow church leaflet in front of you highlights the key aspects of our activities. Please speak to our clergy or parishioners to learn more about our numerous events and opportunities.

Dignified worship in this beautiful sacred space has been the foundation of our life as a community since its foundation in 1872. You are welcome to participate in the ways you feel most comfortable. All are invited to experience the Real Presence of our Lord Jesus Christ by joining us at the altar.

If this is your first visit to All Saints or if you'd like to learn more about us, please fill in the Welcome Card found in the pews.

Blessings and Welcome!

In Christ,

Steve +

The Rev. Steven J. Yagerman, Rector

After the service, all are invited to the coffee hour in the back of the church.

Part of our worship is call and response. Please feel free to speak up loud and clearly in those moments of the liturgy that call for congregational response. You will be setting a good example!

Prayer Requests

To request prayers, please see an usher at the entrance or contact Viviana at the Church office during the week: (212) 758-0447; email: info@allsaintsnyc.org.

THE LESSONS

Congregation is invited to sit for the lessons.

First reading: 1 Kings 19:4-8

Elijah went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a solitary broom tree. He asked that he might die: "It is enough; now, O Lord, take away my life, for I am no better than my ancestors." Then he lay down under the broom tree and fell asleep. Suddenly an angel touched him and said to him, "Get up and eat." He looked, and there at his head was a cake baked on hot stones, and a jar of water. He ate and drank, and lay down again. The angel of the Lord came a second time, touched him, and said, "Get up and eat, otherwise the journey will be too much for you." He got up, and ate and drank; then he went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb the mount of God.

Psalm 34:1-8 Cantor sings antiphon, then all repeat. Please sing antiphon at the end of the Psalm.

Those who seek the LORD lack noth - ing that is good.

- 1 I will bless the LORD at *á*ll times; *
his praise shall ever bé in mý mouth.
- 2 I will glory in the LÓRD; *
let the humble héar and *ré*joice.
- 3 Proclaim with me the greatness of the LÓRD; *
let us exalt his Náme *to*gét*h*er.
- 4 I sought the LORD, and he *á*nswered me *
and delivered me out of *á*ll my *té*rror.
- 5 Look upon him and be *rá*diant, *
and let not your *fá*ces bé ashamed.
- 6 I called in my affliction and the LORD *h*éard me *
and saved me from *á*ll my *tró*ubles.
- 7 The angel of the LORD encompasses those who *f*éar him, *
and *h*é will *del*íver them.
- 8 Taste and see that the LÓRD is good; *
happy are théy who *trú*st in him!

Second reading: Ephesians 4:25-5:2

Putting away falsehood, let all of us speak the truth to our neighbors, for we are members of one another. Be angry but do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your anger, and do not make room for the devil. Thieves must give up stealing; rather let them labor and work honestly with their own hands, so as to have something to share with the needy. Let no evil talk come out of your mouths, but only what is useful for building up, as there is need, so that your words may give grace to those who hear. And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with which you were marked with a seal for the day of redemption. Put away from you all bitterness and wrath and anger and wrangling and slander, together with all malice, and be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ has forgiven you. Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children, and live in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.

#335 I am the bread of life

I Am the Bread of Life

The Gospel:

John 6:35, 41-51

Celebrant:

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People:

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty." Then the Jews began to complain about him because he said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven." They were saying, "Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he now say, 'I have come down from heaven'?" Jesus answered them, "Do not complain among yourselves. No one can come to me unless drawn by the Father who sent me; and I will raise that person up on the last day. It is written in the prophets, 'And they shall all be taught by God.' Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me. Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God; he has seen the Father. Very truly, I tell you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh."

SPECIAL MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR MARY N. BASSIOUNI
SUNDAY, AUGUST 19th AT 3:00PM

10th ANNIVERSARY OF MARY N. BASSIOUNI:
PIONEERING SOUTH SUDANESE WOMAN LEADER AND INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS ADVOCATE
1946-2008

Born in 1946, Mary Nura Bassiouni lost her life in New York City in August 2008, after a long gallant battle with cancer. She is survived by her husband of 42 years, David and her four children, Emile, Aida, David and Richard. Mary was an icon of women's leadership, a pioneering politician and a passionate humanitarian. A Banker by profession, she devoted a lifetime to a distinguished selfless public service career serving as a three-time Member of Parliament and rising to the Senior Constitutional position of Minister for Internal Affairs in the Government in Khartoum, Sudan under President Jaafar Nimiery. Throughout her life and career Mary exhibited remarkable natural leadership skills, the key trait that would later define her trail blazing Public Service career – fearless leadership, passionate advocacy, progressive values and strong, community-centered principles. Above all she championed the cause of women at a time when discrimination and inequity was accepted as their normal station in life.

THE JOY OF VOLUNTEERING!

Did you know that every week your fellow parishioners spend hours of their Saturday in food preparation and cooking in order to feed God's hungry and needy children. It is strong spiritual medicine, both in the giving and the receiving. You are invited and welcome to participate.
